

Los Cancioneros Concert At First Christian Church

Los Cancioneros will be heard at 7:30 p.m., Sunday Dec. 4, as their first public appearance of the Christmas season is opened with a concert at the First Christian Church of Torrance.

Traditional Carols of many lands will be heard as well as the Christmas message as expressed by modern composers. The public is invited to attend and unite in this observance of Christmas.

This group of fifty singers is comprised of residents of the South-Bay and Peninsula areas who are dedicated to the excellent performance of choral music. They have been performing in various settings in the local area for eleven years, and are continuing under the direction of Mrs. Tom Mabin of Rolling Hills with Mrs. Dorothy Woodruff Asher of San Pedro as accompanist.

Accepted to sing with Los Cancioneros are new members: Mrs. Eugene Port, soprano; Jack Chadwick and Bill Horst, tenors.

Returning after a leave of absence is Mrs. W. K. Newborn, alto. Serving as treasurer on the advisory board is Henry Morgan, baritone.

Others from the Torrance area who are members are Mr. and Mrs. Vic Kilburn, Ellis Myers, Bart Bartholomew, Steve Sampson and Mesdames Robert Padelford, R. P. Teutsch, Don Byersdorf and Walt Holloway.

TURNABOUT

Approximately six out of 10 families own their own homes today. Twenty years ago, six out of 10 families rented.

Local Women Aid Muscular Dystrophy Party

South Bay Patient Service Committee of the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc. recently entertained 25 children from the South Bay area. The costume party was held at Wateria Park in Torrance, with prizes given to the children with the best costumes.

Narbonne High School students provided musical skits with the yell leaders leading the children in cheers. The Tahquitz Tribe, a long Beach Boy Scout group, performed ancient Indian tribal dances in authentic costumes.

Among those assisting Mrs. Roger Kluge of Gardena, president of the South Bay Chapter of MDAA, were Mrs. Mildred Harl of Manhattan Beach, Mrs. Alma La Rose of Torrance, Mrs. Richard Simpson of Manhattan Beach and Mrs. Marge Humphrey of Torrance. Mrs. Wanda Atkins of Torrance provided games for each child.

Mrs. Kluge stated, "The South Bay Patient Service Committee fills a real community need and we hope that every citizen will join in the annual 'March for Muscular Dystrophy' to be held the first week in December."

New Members Greeted by Disabled Veterans

Commander Glenn T. Casbere, Chapter No. 30, Disabled American Veterans, welcomed three new members to the chapter in November.

Antonio C. Martinez joined as a new member. He is an Army veteran of World War II. He resides in Torrance, California.

Edgar Thornton and Franklin R. Muse transferred from other districts.

Veterans with service connected disabilities are invited to the meetings on December 28, 1960 and January 11, 1961. Senior Vice Commander Tony Glumance will explain the advantages and requirements in joining the Disabled American Veterans Chapter 30.

Meetings are at 7:30 p.m., on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays each month at the veterans' Memorial Building, Warren Lane and Centinela Boulevard, Inglewood, California.

Delta Tau Delta Meets Today

Delta Tau Delta chapter of the Delphian Society will meet at the Fish Shanty, December 1. Mrs. William Mueller will lead the discussion on "World Organization as a Road to Peace."

Speakers will be Mmes. Merrill Stone, and David F. Conklin.

Mrs. Harris Van Balkenburg has become a member of this Chapter and Mrs. Forrest W. Crowe is leaving.

Holiday Dinner Dance Planned by Alumnae

Third of December marks the date of the annual Christmas Dinner-Dance given by the South Bay Alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta. Members and their husbands will gather at the Elks Club in Redondo Beach at 7:30 p.m., Saturday.

Among those anticipating a festive evening are Messers and Mesdames Richard Stewart, Hugo Jones and G. W. Bradshaw, Jr. of Manhattan Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Winn, Palos Verdes Estates; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kraatz, East View; Messers and Mesdames Raymond Lewand and John E. Phillips of Torrance.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hawks of Hawthorne, Mr. and Mrs. William Ball of Playa Del Rey, and Mr. and Mrs. Bent Davies of Rolling Hills.

Also in the busy month of December, Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae will hold their regular monthly meeting on the 14th. Mrs. Donald Moses will be hostess for her sorority sisters at 27022 Fon Du Lac Road, Palos Verdes Estates. Mrs. Samuel Needham of Redondo Beach will serve as co-hostess.

Mrs. Robert Jani, Philanthropy Chairman, of Manhattan Beach has planned an evening of work for our local philanthropy—the School for Exceptional Children in the South Bay.

Also in the busy month of December, Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae will hold their regular monthly meeting on the 14th. Mrs. Donald Moses will be hostess for her sorority sisters at 27022 Fon Du Lac Road, Palos Verdes Estates.

Annette Sings at POP Teenage singing idol Annette, who started her sensational rise to fame as a Mouseketeer, will make a personal appearance on "Wink Martindale's P.O.P. Dance Party" at the Pacific Ocean Park, Friday evening, December 2.

Martindale's Friday night show this weekend will be video taped from 9:45 p.m. to 10:45 p.m. for release from 9 to 10 p.m. Saturday, December 3, thus giving fans an opportunity to see and hear Annette in person at the Park Friday night and again on Channel 13, Saturday.

British Author To Address Student Chapter Meeting

With the noted British author Robert D. Archer as the speaker of the evening, the student chapter of the Institute of the Aerospace Science of the Northrop Institute of Technology will hold a special dinner meeting Saturday, December 3 at the Western Airlines Restaurant, Los Angeles International Airport.

Archer, who is on the editorial staff of Flight magazine and Jane's All The World Aircraft, will speak on the topic, "British and American Aircraft Industries Compared".

More than 100 persons are expected at the event which is under the direction of Professor Richard C. Smith, Faculty Advisor, and Donald O'Mara, Student Chairman.

CLOGGING SIGN

If water from the hot water faucet flows more slowly than it does from the cold water tap, your hot water pipes may be rust-clogged. Anaconda copper plumbing specialists say. They point out that hot water causes pipes which are not rust proof to scale more rapidly.
